Tutor biography

Christine Spillane

Christine graduated from the University of Reading where she undertook research into imagery in Virgil's Aeneid. Her doctoral thesis with the Open University examined Late Antique and Mediaeval illuminated manuscripts of the Aeneid. She is an experienced teacher of both secondary school students and adults.

Christine seeks to inspire her students with a similar enthusiasm for the Classical world as she holds herself, not least by encouraging her students to look at artefacts in museums and by organising visits to the Classical world. When reading texts, she encourages a co-operative spirit in her students to investigate style and sound, in addition to moulding a good translation.

David Tristram

David Tristram has taught Classics in a variety of settings, from secondary school to adult education. Having studied Classics at the University of Hull, he completed his PGCE and went on to obtain an MA in Educational Management. This led to Headteacher positions at the Birkbeck School and, later, at the Kingswood School in Corby. David is also a former Chief Examiner for GCSE Latin with OCR, former Chair of JACT Council and a member of the Grant Awarding Committee for Classics for All, an organisation which promotes teaching of classical subjects in maintained schools.

David has an enthusiasm for his subject which permeates his teaching, and he very much enjoys working with a group to translate Cicero or Pliny - or any Latin author - in a class where students are supported and encouraged to contribute and share their own thoughts on the text.

Course syllabus

Aims:

1. to appreciate and enjoy the reading of texts in Latin.
2. to extend knowledge of Latin grammar, syntax and vocabulary.
3. to develop the ability to translate orally from Latin into English.
4. to develop an appreciation of literary style.
5. to appreciate the context in which the texts were written

Content:

Students must provide their own copy of the text:

EITHER: Plautus Amphitryo

There is a BCP edition

BCP (Bloomsbury) £15.99 ISBN 9781853993497

OR Cicero de amicitia

There is a BCP edition

BCP (Bloomsbury) £17.99 ISBN 9780862920920

Both texts may be downloaded freely at: TheLatinLibrary.com

Presentation of the course:

The class will read the text and create an agreed translation through contributions from participants. There will be a full discussion of the author's style and, where appropriate, an analysis of the language used.

As a result of the course, within the constraints of the time available, students should be able to:

1. demonstrate an increased appreciation and enjoyment of the reading of texts in Latin.
2. show an improved knowledge of Latin grammar, syntax and vocabulary.
3. translate orally from Latin into English more effectively.
4. demonstrate an enhanced appreciation of literary style.
5. show a greater understanding of the context within which the texts were written.
