Tutor biography

Course Director

Dr Janet Watson (tutor for the intermediate group) holds a PhD in Classics, and has a special interest in the Homeric epics. She has been teaching in higher and continuing education for more than twenty-five years. She currently teaches at Newcastle University in the school of History, Classics and Archaeology.

Janet has extensive experience in teaching classical Greek language and literature, and is a keen advocate of the Reading Greek methodology, whereby students are introduced to grammar and syntax through carefully graded reading passages adapted from original sources, progressing to original texts. This approach enables students not only to learn the language, but also to acquire an understanding of the culture in which it flourished.

Course Tutors

Dr John Taylor (tutor for the continuing beginners group) has been a tutor at Madingley since 1993. He was educated at Balderstone School, Rochdale and Exeter College, Oxford, MA DPhil. He was a full time Classics teacher between 1982 – 2012. He has been Head of Classics at St Francis Xavier’s College, Liverpool and Tonbridge School. He has been involved in the JACT Greek Summer School, Bryanston since 1986 (Director of Studies 1993-2004, Director 2007-8 and 2011).
Anthony Verity (tutor for the advanced group) teaches and translates classical Greek, with a particular interest in Greek Literature, especially Homer and the tragedians. He studied classics and oriental languages at Cambridge and taught in leading independent schools before becoming headmaster of Leeds Grammar School and Master of Dulwich College. Anthony teaches in a collaborative style in seminar form.

Course syllabus

Aims:
Students should be able to extend their knowledge of basic patterns of Greek grammar and syntax. In addition, they should be able to develop their appreciation of literary style and increase their understanding of the historical and cultural context of the passages they are studying.

Content:

Continuing Beginners’ group:
JACT Reading Greek (2nd ed., CUP, 2007).

Presentation of the course:
Students work in small groups with their tutor. Students prepare the sections of the course book or the passages of Greek Literature to be read before they come. This gives plenty of opportunity for discussion and further exploration of the historical background or explanation of features of the language. In addition there is a lecture on Saturday evening on some aspect of ancient Greek culture.

As a result of the course, within the constraints of the time available, students should be able to:
- recognise more vocabulary;
- recognise some new features of Greek language
- recognise some new idiomatic uses;
- have confidence in their ability to translate from Greek into English;
- feel that they are developing a sense of the style of different literary genres or authors;
- feel that they have learned something more about the background to the language and literature they are studying.
