One 4,000 word essay per module, carrying 10% of the marks each.

Unassessed research proposal essay at the start of year 2.

YEAR 2

There are 3 Day Schools:

Day School 1: Workshop on research design, analysis, evaluation of sources & methods

Day School 2: Linking your topic and the historiography

Day School 3: Structure and presentation

• A dissertation of 16,000-20,000 words, based on primary research, in British local and regional history or Global history, carrying 60% of the marks.

Application process

See our website: http://www.ice.cam.ac.uk/course/mst-history Apply on-line.

'Statement of intended research'

- Area of research and chronological period
- How the research contributes to the existing historiography on that topic
- Arr Primary sources
- 600-1,000 words (2-5 pages) in length.

The topic must fall within one of the MSt in History pathways: either British local and regional history or Global history. The research proposal is an essential element of the application since supervisors for the dissertation are secured before admission.

Interviews: 16 & 17 January 2020; 15-17 April 2020.
